

CREW CT Celebrates 22nd Annual Blue Ribbon Awards: The Best of Connecticut Real Estate

Eight outstanding real estate projects were honored at The Connecticut Science Center in April by CREW CT, an organization dedicated to supporting and advancing the achievements of women in commercial real estate.

Taking top honors with the best in show Blue Ribbon was Symmetry Partners in Glastonbury, which additionally won in the category of Best in Class Commercial space.

PHOTO © J. FIERECK PHOTOGRAPHY

The project team included the owners, Symmetry Partners, Amenta Emma Architects, Carlin Construction Company, and Edward Stanley Engineers.

The new Sandy Hook School in Newtown was recipient of the "People's Choice Award," selected by attendees during the event. The project was additionally named Best in Class Education.

PHOTO © J. FIERECK PHOTOGRAPHY

Project team members were Svigals Partners, Consigli Construction, BVH Integrated Services, STV/DPM, Michael Horton Associates, and Richter & Cegan.

Additional Blue Ribbon Honorees

- Best in Class Office: Consolidation of State of CT Government Offices, Hartford, submitted by Tecton Architects
- Best Specialty Project: Mystic Seaport Thompson Exhibition Building, Mystic, submitted by Centerbrook Architects
- Best Sustainable Project: Coltsville-JCJ Architect Offices, Hartford, submitted by JCJ Architecture
- Best Interior Project: Quinnipiac University Brand Strategy Group, Hamden, submitted by Amenta Emma Architects
- Best in Class Healthcare: Hartford Hospital Center for Education, Simulation and Innovation, Hartford, submitted by Tecton Architects
- Best in Class Residential: Capewell Lofts, Hartford, submitted by CIL and designed by Crosskey Architects

PHOTO © J. FIERECK PHOTOGRAPHY

Blue Ribbon Committee from left to right: Edward Shelton, Josephine Aberle, Jonathan Putnam, co-chair and co-emcee Kelsey Rath, Melissa Roy, co-emcee Katherine Lambert, co-chair Lisa Chapman, Megan Cleary, president Courtney Hendricson, Jim Brooks.

THANK YOU TO OUR 2017 EVENT SPONSORS

Media Sponsors

